Dear Mr MacAulay

On behalf of the Prime Minister, I would like to thank you for your correspondence of 31 May 2007 suggesting the need for a new financial regulatory system that incorporates consumer protection.

The Prime Minister appreciates the time you have taken to convey your views to him. However, he regrets that due to the large volume of correspondence he receives, he is unable to respond to each item personally. Consequently, and to ensure that issues receive the attention they deserve, the Prime Minister has asked that correspondence be referred to his ministers for further consideration. I have referred your correspondence to the Minister for Revenue and Assistant Treasurer, the Hon Peter Dutton MP for attention, given that he is responsible for the development of policy on this matter.

Again, thank you for taking the time to write to the Prime Minister.

Yours sincerely
